“I’m honored to serve and counsel those that dedicate their lives to public education. There is no greater investment in our communities and I’m proud to be a part of that.”

Destinee Gesing was born and raised in El Paso, Texas, where she was educated in public schools. She focuses her legal practice on the representation of school districts in the areas of facilities, business, construction and real estate.

While at St. Mary’s University School of Law, Destinee was a member of the Board of Advocates and the National Mock Trial team. Destinee’s law school career concluded with her being selected as one of ten students from St. Mary’s inducted into the prestigious Order of the Barristers.

During law school, she clerked for a law firm in El Paso, Texas whose primary focus was on the representation of El Paso area school districts. Following graduation from law school, Destinee worked as an associate attorney, where her practice was comprised of handling complex litigation and appellate matters.
