“We’re here to support the schools of the Rio Grande Valley. When we can free-up our educators to focus on serving students, we’ve done good work for our community.”

Miguel A. Saldaña is a native of Brownsville, Texas. In addition to his general school law practice, Mike focuses on litigation involving school employment and personnel issues as well as facilities and business.

An experienced litigator with over 69 jury trials in his career, Mike has argued successfully before the Texas 13th Court of Appeals, the Texas Supreme Court, and the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Prior to joining the firm, Mike served as a school board trustee, board president and later as general counsel to the Brownsville Independent School District.
