"Our clients do what they do for the benefit of the kids in their community. It is a honor and a privilege to work with them to achieve their goals."

Robb D. Decker focuses his legal practice in the areas of employment, student law, and governance. He brings a range of perspectives to his practice of school law.

Following graduation from law school, Robb worked for a private law firm where he represented the Gwinnett County School system in suburban Atlanta, Georgia.

Upon moving back to Texas and prior to joining Walsh Gallegos, Robb's practice involved general business litigation with a focus on employment law.

He is a frequent speaker at state-wide school law conferences and advises school districts in all aspects of general school law.
