“Education is great opportunity. It is my honor to fiercely advocate on behalf of the very school districts offering such opportunity.”

Jessica is a first-generation American who was raised with a profound understanding of the power of education and the responsibility to give back through service. Guided by these values, Jessica built her career rooted in justice and dedicated herself to service.

Prior to joining Wash Gallegos, Jessica spent over a decade in public service as an Assistant District Attorney, where she advocated for victims of crimes and their families. Whether as an Assistant District Attorney or as an Associate at Walsh Gallegos, Jessica has dedicated her life to the safety and wellbeing of children.

Jessica earned her law degree from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Michigan.
