“It’s an honor to support public education and those that work endlessly behind the scenes to empower the next generation. My goal is to help guide staff and administration through legal challenges with ease and efficiency.”

Carlos E. Alferez focuses his legal practice on facilities and business, governance, employment, and student issues. Prior to attending law school, Carlos gained first-hand experience working in the area of real estate and foreclosures.

Carlos earned his law degree from Baylor University School of Law. There, he was vice president of the Hispanic American Law Student Association, treasurer of the Christian Legal Society, and semifinalist of the Naman Howell Smith and Lee Intrascholastic Client Counseling Competition. Prior to law school, he attended the University of Texas at Arlington, where he received a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice.
