Senior Counsel

Phone: (713) 789-6864 | Fax: (713) 789-9318

“I’ve been everywhere and faced all kinds of challenges. Each experience has deepened my understanding of how shared systems can help people work together effectively.”

Melanie Gregg Charleston brings unique perspectives to her practice of school law. She focuses her legal practice in the area of governance, student law, and employment law.

Shortly after graduating from law school, she served as a legal intern for the Arlington Independent School District. Thereafter, she entered private practice, gaining experience in family law, employment law, probate, and criminal matters.

Prior to entering law school, Melanie worked for more than 12 years in human resources for the airline industry. There, she handled training, policy development, employee performance and discipline, dispute resolution, Equal Employment Opportunity investigations, and labor relations.
